

Month Long Training Programme on Mutual Funds kick-started at Amar Singh College, Srinagar

Principal Amar Singh College, Prof. Bashir Ahmad Rather today inaugurated a month long Training Programme on Mutual Funds organised by Department of Commerce of the college in collaboration with BSE Institute Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bombay Stock Exchange, Mumbai. In his inaugural address, the worthy principal threw light on the importance, working and structure of mutual fund industry in India. He stressed upon the role of mutual funds and other derivatives in shaping the economic prospects of the country. Congratulating the Department of Commerce, Prof. Rather expressed his contentment and promised of full support in organising such programmes in future.

The resource person from BSE Institute Limited, Mr. Wajahat Qadri, articulated the scope and content of the programme which shall be imparted during the tenure of the course. Prof. Ishfaq Ahmad Wani, Co-ordinator and Head, Department of Commerce, deliberated upon the aims and objectives of the programme and also presented vote of thanks.

Dr. Imran Khan, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce, conducted the proceedings of the inaugural of the programme. Prof. Umar Amin and Prof. Mohd. Younis Sofi were also presented on the occasion.